L'Bode

The story of our L'bode Wood Burner is a passion for excellence and unity.

Made with care by highly skilled professionals, these timeless burners can bring warmth and memorable moments to your home.

In recent times, our gardens have become even more of a safe haven. An extra safe place to socially distance with loved ones over the summer, now those atmospheric evenings don't have to end. The entire year can now be enjoyed with an outdoor fireplace that can be a focal point for your garden,

Our burners have glass fronted doors so you do not get exposed to unwanted smoke or ash. As each L'bode burner is handmade, each fireplace has its own rusting process making it unique.

Stay safe and warm with one of our fantastic fireplaces.

A rustic outdoor fireplace made of weathered metal stands on a stone patio. A fire is burning brightly inside the fireplace's opening. To the left is a grey wicker sofa with cushions. To the right is a grey wicker armchair with cushions. In the background, there are green plants and a wooden fence.

"We don't build fireplaces for just physical warmth we build them for the warmth of the soul; we build them to dream by, to hope by, to home "
